1.—BOTANIC GARDENS.

The most important change which I have to mention in this department, and indeed in many respects the most important that has occurred since 1841, when I was appointed Director, has been the retirement (owing to an affection of the eyes) of our able and highly valued Curator, Mr. John Smith, who, for upwards of 30 years has superintended all departments of the Royal Gardens, and whose services and fidelity have been recognised by the Treasury in granting him the highest scale of pension. Indeed, previous to my taking office, Mr. Smith's services to the Gardens and to science were mentioned with approbation by the Commissioners, whose report on the condition of the Royal Gardens was presented to Parliament in 1838; and they especially drew attention to the fact, that to Mr. Smith alone (then a foreman) was due the credit of having named any of the plants, whether for the interest of science or the instruction of the public.

As may well be supposed, it has been found impossible to obtain another Curator who combines with the necessary amount of skill as a cultivator, and efficiency as a general manager, that knowledge of rare, curious, and useful plants which our late Curator so eminently possessed. But his successor (also Mr. John Smith), late head gardener to his Grace the Duke of Northumberland at Syon House, not only bears the highest testimonials for skill and ability as a horticulturist and as a general manager, but has further long been known to myself and other botanists as having that special fondness for the cultivation of tropical and economic plants, for which the Syon gardens have been celebrated throughout Europe.

I have only to add that at present Mr. Smith, who entered upon his office on the 16*th of May, has proved himself eminently qualified for the curatorship, and is rapidly acquiring that special knowledge for which his predecessor was distinguished, and which experience alone can bring.*

No change of any importance has taken place in the general arrangement or disposition of the Garden grounds or houses, but many improvements are being introduced in the plantations, lawns, and walks; the lawns especially, being devoted to the cultivation of named specimens of rare shrubs and trees, interspersed with clumps of shrubs, or planted for protection amongst them, occupy our men during the winter season.

The original Arboretum near the entrance gates, being now worn out, has been replenished with a collection of scarce and ornamental flowering trees, conifers, &c., amongst which, near the paths, clumps of herbaceous plants will be introduced, together with named aloes, cycads, yuccas, and such other tender greenhouse and stove plants as will stand exposure to the climate during the summer.

Owing to the change of curators, the foreign and colonial correspondence and interchange of plants has been in some degree suspended; but many valuable collections of living plants and

and seeds have been received. Of these by far the most considerable is a collection of many hundreds of Cape bulbs, &c., from Wilson Saunders, of Hillfield, Reigate, Esq., F.R.S., imported by a collector sent out principally at that gentleman's expense. This is only one of many valuable gifts made by Mr. Wilson Saunders to the Royal Gardens.

Cases of living plants, bulbs, and seeds, have been also received from Calcutta, Botanic Garden: Dr. Anderson. Moulmayne: Rev. C. S. P. Parish, and Major Benson. Ceylon, Botanic Garden: G. H. K. Thwaites, Esq. Ceylon: — Vickermann, Esq. East Africa, and Seychelles: Drs. Livingstone, Kirk, and Meller. Benguela: J. Monteiro, Esq., and Dr. Welwitsch. Natal: W. T. Gerrard, Esq. St. Helena: His Excellency the Governor, and Mr. Melliss. Mauritius, Botanic Garden: Mr. Duncan and M. Bouton. Bahia: C. Williams, Esq. Martinique: M. Belanger. Chili: Mr. Leybold. Rio de Janeiro: M. Wittig. Guatemala: Dr. Sclater, F.R.S. Quito: Dr. Jameson. Victoria (Australia), Botanic Gardens: Dr. Mueller. Queensland, Botanic Garden: Mr. Hill. New Zealand: Dr. Hector, W. L. Travers, Esq., and Dr. Haast.

MISCELLANEOUS PLANTS.—The late Earl of Ilchester; Messrs. I. A. Henry, of Edinburgh; T. V. Wollaston, of Teignmouth; D. Hanbury, of London; Corderoy, of Blewbery; Eastwood, of Halifax; Thompson, of Ipswich; the Edinburgh, Hull, Regent's Park, and Goettingen Royal Gardens; and the principal London nurserymen, especially Messrs. Low, of Clapton.

About 4,000 live plants and 4,600 packets of seeds have been distributed.

Steps are being taken to introduce the Ipecacuanha into Ceylon and India. Young plants have been received from Mr. C. H. Williams, of Bahia, and are being propagated for transmission. Several young gardeners, who have held responsible charges here, have been appointed to colonial and other Government establishments. Mr. Mann, who spent three years on the West Coast of Africa, collecting for the Royal Gardens, and whose collections and return in good health were alluded to in my last year's report, has taken charge of the Cinchona plantations in the Himalaya under Dr. Anderson; Mr. Prestoe, foreman of the fern department, has succeeded Dr. Cruger as superintendent of the Botanic Garden of Trinidad. At the desire of the Admiralty, I have recommended Mr. Coulon to take charge of the plantations on Ascension Island, whence we continue to receive encouraging accounts of the increased fertility and moisture of the island consequent on the extension of the plantations, which we continue to supply with young trees, &c. in Ward's cases.

The Cork Oaks, mentioned in my last report as having been sent out at the request of the Government of South Australia, have arrived in excellent condition, and are thriving. Under the direction of George Macleay, Esq., similar cases of live Cork Oaks have been sent to Victoria, Sydney, and Queensland; of these the second alone has failed, and other cases are now preparing to be sent there; those sent to Victoria and Queensland have arrived in good condition.

Most flourishing accounts of the Cinchona plantations continue to arrive from India.

In the Nilgherries Sir William Denison informs us, that though the country had in April last suffered from 112 days' drought, yet the Cinchona plantations had not been damaged; and that the plants were being propagated at the rate of 30,000 to 40,000 monthly. From Ceylon Mr. Thwaites writes that in September last he had 190,000 plants, the tallest six feet high; that applications had been received for 28,500 plants, of which 9,000 had been supplied; and that he expected to issue 20,000 monthly.

Jamaica still needs a proper person to superintend a Cinchona plantation. The capability of the island for its growth has been abundantly proved by Mr. Wilson, of the Botanic Garden, who, under every discouragement, has planted out 400 plants in a suitable locality, which, however, being at a great distance from the Botanic Garden, require a good resident practical gardener for their superintendence and increase.

II.—PLEASURE GROUNDS.

The most important work commenced here during the past year has been the revision, &c. of the Arboretum; the pleasure grounds being devoted to the cultivation of a complete named collection of all the trees and shrubs that will stand our climate. During the past 12 years upwards of 3,000 species and varieties of these have been planted, arranged in groups according to the natural system; besides many thousand ornamental or interesting specimens for the decoration of the grounds. The time has now arrived for showing how far the choice of plants and their disposal has been satisfactory, and for rearranging, replanting, or giving better soil where necessary; as also for revising the names and renewing the tallies. The condition of the collection is exceedingly unequal. Owing to the summer droughts, the sterility of the sandy and gravelly soil over large tracts of the grounds, and the injurious effects of the roots of the old trees with which the grounds are in many places encumbered; the actual available amount of good sites for the above-mentioned purpose is comparatively small; and we have further proved, that to raise vigorous trees at all, these should have the protection of clumps of shrubs when young.

During the past season about half the collection has been examined, the beds dug over and copious supplies of leaf-mould and better soil added to every bed and tree which it has been thought advisable to retain in its present position. Upwards of 1,500 plants from our own nursery have been planted out, either for ornament or to replace the deficiencies in the collection; many species which prove too tender, or otherwise unsuited for cultivation in our grounds, have been removed and the remainder have been examined and named.

Beds have been made round the Deodars along nearly the whole length of the Pagoda vista, and most of them planted with shrubs to encourage the Deodars by affording protection to their roots.

The side arches of the picturesque ruin near the Richmond-road have been opened, and the environs planted with a collection of hardy ferns, named collection of ivies, &c.

A small heated pit for raising plants for the Winter Garden has been built in the Nursery, which is being rearranged and greatly improved.

Extensive works for the supply of water to the Royal and Crown property at Richmond and Kew are in progress, in connection with the lake, which is still in an unfinished state.

The Nursery for the supply of the parks is stocked with young trees, of which 1,665 have been supplied to the Deer Park and Richmond Park, and a large stock is about to be sent to the Metropolitan Parks.

The principal contributors of seeds and plants to the Arboretum and Winter Garden have been,—

His Grace the Duke of Somerset; Japan seeds.

W. Locke Travers, Esq.; Canterbury, New Zealand, and Chatham Island seeds.

Dr. Hector; Otago seeds.

Prof. Harvey, and H. Hutton, Esq.; South African seeds.

Dr. Mueller; Victoria, &c. seeds.

Mr. Brockman; W. Australian seeds.

Messrs. Haast and Schmidt, of Erfurt; coniferous seeds.

I. A. Henry, Esq., of Edinburgh; Andean and other plants.

Dr. Campbell; Himalaya Rhododendron seeds.

Royal Gardens, Edinburgh; various plants.

The usual interchanges have been kept up with nurserymen and others. Thirty-six Wardian cases with Cork oaks have been sent to South Australia, Victoria, Sydney, and Queensland, and one to St. Helena. Large packets of seeds of hardy shrubs and trees have been sent to W. Australia, Queensland, the Sandwich Islands, &c.

III.—MUSEUMS.

The arrangement of the collection of woods in Museum No. 3, has been proceeded with; the floor has been matted; the wall specimens protected by a hand-rail; a great number of the largest specimens have been repolished, and all reticketed; the Welwitschias enclosed in a glass case; and the central timber trophy rearranged.

Valuable contributions have been received, as follows:

His Excellency the late Duke of Malakoff; a large collection of Algerian woods.

Messrs. Piesse & Lubin; vegetable substances used for scenting tea in China.

Dr. Welwitsch; a very valuable named collection of Benguela and Angola woods, fruits, &c.

Captains Speke and Grant; Central African seeds, &c.

His Grace the Duke of Somerset; Japan pine cones.

D. Hanbury, Esq.; manna of Briançon.

J. Haast, Esq.; a specimen of the vegetable sheep of the New Zealand Alps.

Messrs. Haag & Schmidt, of Erfurt; cones of Pinus Peuce, which have enabled us to prove that this rare plant, which in Europe is confined to a single mountain in Turkey, is the same as the Himalaya P. excelsa.

Dr. Kotschy of Vienna; a beautiful named collection of oriental acorns.

Right Hon. E. Cardwell, and his Grace the late Duke of Newcastle; cones of Araucaria Bidwillii.

Professor Brewer, of California; a magnificent photograph of the Wellingtonia forest.

Mrs. Boott; portrait in oils of Michaux, the author of "The American Sylva;" and a bust of the late Sir J. E. Smith, the founder of the Linnæan Society, and formerly possessor of the library and collection of Linnæus.

IV.—HERBARIUM AND LIBRARY.

The scientific duties of the Royal Gardens continue to be the most onerous connected with the establishment; owing to the incessant demands for the names of plants in our own and other gardens, and of those collected by travellers and explorers on Government and other expeditions; and for information as to economic plants and vegetable products; in addition to the extensive and ever increasing colonial and foreign correspondence and publications.

The principal works done in this department, or in connection with it, have been:—

1. The publication of the second volume of the Flora of the Australian colonies, by G. Bentham, Esq., assisted by Dr. Mueller, of Victoria, who continues to send his own Herbarium for examination, and all the newly discovered plants as they are received by him, with notes and observations, for this work. The third volume is in progress; published under the authority of the several Australian Governments.

2. The Flora of the Cape Colony, British Caffraria, and Natal, by Dr. Harvey, F.R.S., of Dublin, and Mr. Sonder, of Hamburgh. The third volume of this will shortly appear; published under the authority of the Cape Government.

3. Dr. Grisebach's West Indian Flora is completed in one thick volume, and was published under the authority of the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

4. Mr. Thwaites' Enumeration of Ceylon plants is completed and published.

5. The first volume of a Handbook of the New Zealand Flora, prepared by Dr. Hooker at the desire of the Government of that colony, is now published; and the second volume is in course of preparation.

6. The 90th annual volume of the Botanical Magazine, being the 24th prepared at Kew, has been published by the Director, with 72 coloured plates of new and rare plants that have flowered in the Royal and other British gardens.

Of other works in preparation the most important are:—

7. The Flora of British India, by Dr. Thomson, F.R.S., under the auspices of the Secretary of State for India.

8. The outlines of the Flora of tropical Africa, by Professor Oliver and Dr. Hooker.

9. Dr. Mueller, of Geneva, has spent three months at Kew, for the purpose of describing the Euphorbiaceæ for M. de Candolle's Prodromus.

10. M. C. de Candolle, of Geneva, has described the natural order of Peppers for the same work.

11. Mr. Lowne has named and arranged his large Palestine and Lebanon collections, made during the Rev. Mr. Tristram's expedition.

12. Dr. Kirk has rendered us great service in arranging and naming his own and other East African collections, and the Mauritius ones of the late Dr. Ayres, Judge Blackburn, and others.

13. Mr. Spruce is residing at Kew for the purpose of arranging his Andean, &c., collections.

14. Dr. Triana, of Bogota, was for several months engaged on his Flora of New Grenada, published for the Government of that Republic.

15. The Japanese and Korean collections of Mr. Oldham, amounting to about 13,000 specimens, have been named and distributed to various public museums.

16. The distribution of the great Herbarium of the East Indian Company has been proceeded with; and that of the Kashmir, Punjab, and Himalayan collections of Dr. Falconer commenced.

The principal contributions to the Herbarium and Library have been:—

1. The collection of specimens, drawings, and MSS. of Carices, of the late Dr. Francis Boott, F.L.S., formerly Treasurer of the Linnæan Society; presented by his widow. It is impossible to over-estimate the value of this gift. Dr. Boott devoted the greater part of his life to the study of this particular and very difficult tribe of plants; he formed a complete and beautifully arranged and named collection of the species from all parts of the world; and was for 30 years the standard authority for their nomenclature. At his own expense he caused to be prepared in Paris and London a superb series of folio drawings of all the species, of which upwards of 400 were published, with descriptions in three volumes, and privately distributed, also at his own expense. The entire number of drawings amounts to upwards of 700.

2. The Herbarium and MSS. of the late Dr. P. B. Ayres, colonial surgeon of Mauritius; presented by his widow. Dr. Ayres spent upwards of ten years in the Mauritius, during which time the whole of his leisure was employed in exploring its botany, and describing the plants for a Flora which he intended to publish. This Herbarium, which is a very considerable one, together with the MSS. will prove of great use in the event of a Flora of Mauritius being published, which is in contemplation by the Colonial Government.

The most extensive and valuable of the other contributions have been:—

1. EUROPEAN PLANTS.—Spain, M. Bourgeau; Hungary, Colonel Victor de Janlea; Dauphiné, Professor Oliver and Mr. Hanbury; Feroe Islands, Sir W. C. Trevelyan, Bart.; Portugal, Dr. Welwitsch; Spitzbergen, W. W. Wagstaffe, Esq.; Eastern Lapland, Felleman; various, Rev. W. A. Leighton.

2. ASIATIC PLANTS.—Syria, Dr. Kotschy, Miss Osburn, Mrs. Wynne, Mr. B. T. Lowne, Professor Ehrenberg (Berlin Herbarium); Peninsula of India, Dr. Wight; Rohilkhund, Dr. J. L. Stewart; Sikkim, Dr. T. Anderson; Ceylon, Mr. Thwaites; Indian Archipelago, Professor Miquel, of Leyden, and Dr. Anderson, of Calcutta; Siam, Sir R. Schomburgk; China, Dr. Hance, Dr. Tate, and Capt. Eustace Jacob; Japan and Corea, Mr. Oldham (collector for the Royal Gardens); Dr. Maingay and F. V. Dickins, Esq., R.N.

3. AUSTRALIA.—Sir Daniel Cooper, Bart., Dr. F. Mueller; Tasmania, Miss Cox; New Zealand, Dr. Hector, Mr. Buchanan, Dr. Haast, W. L. Travers, Esq., and Mr. W. Wakefield; Chatham Islands, W. L. Travers, Esq.; New Caledonia, Mr. Lenormand, of Vire, the Herbarium of the Jardin des Plantes, and the Directors of the Colonial Exposition of Paris; Samoan Island, Rev. T. Powell; Sandwich Islands, Dr. Hillebrand.

4. AFRICA.—Zambesi and Shiri Lakes, and Johanna Island, Dr. Kirk, Dr. C. J. Meller, and Mr. Horace Waller; Benguela and Angola, Dr. Welwitsch; Dahomey, Congo, and Annabon, Consul Burton; Natal, Dr. Sutherland; Dammara Land, &c., Mr. Andersson, and Messrs. Chapman and T. Baines; Mauritius and Rodrigues, the late Dr. Ayres, and Mr. Duncan; Madagascar and Bourbon, Museum of the Jardin des Plantes, Paris; St. Helena, Mr. Melliss, Capt. Haughton; Cape of Good Hope, Dr. Harvey, F.R.S.

5. NORTH AMERICA.—Canada, J. Macoun, Esq.; British Columbia and Vancouver's Island, Mrs. E. Mills, and Dr. C. B. Wood; Jamaica, Mr. Wilson; Trinidad, the late Dr. Cruger.

6. SOUTH AMERICA.—Chili, Herb. Mus., Paris; British Guiana, Mr. Appun, Colonial Government Collector.

Miscellaneous collections from various countries have been received from the Royal Herbaria of Berlin and Paris, Prof. Agardh, of Lund, Prof. Areschoug, of Upsala, &c.

As Director of the Royal Gardens, I have annually to state that we continue to receive the most cordial assistance from Her Majesty's Secretaries of State for India and the Colonies, from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, from most of the Governors of our Colonies and Foreign Possessions, and from many of our Consuls; as also that we are under special obligations to the Royal Steam Packet Companies and the Peninsular and Oriental Company for facilities in transmitting packages of seeds and plants free of expense.

Director.

Her Majesty's Works and Buildings.

Sir, Her Majesty's Stationery Office, 30 December 1864.

I HAVE the honour to send herewith, for the information of the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury, an Estimate of the sums that will probably be required to defray the expenditure of this Office for the public service during the ensuing official year 1865-66. This estimate amounts in all to 365,410 l., being an aggregate increase over the sum voted for the service of the current year of 21,245 l. The whole of this excess is, however, apparent only, and arises from circumstances which I will presently explain. The actual sums required for the ensuing year show a reduction on those voted for the current year, to an aggregate amount of 3,755 l. The only important items in which a reduction of expense appears probable, are the following:—

REDUCTIONS.

War Department	£. 2,900
Inland Revenue	2,180
Parliamentary Printing	4,500
Stationery Office Publications	1,500
Miscellaneous	1,400
	£. 12,480

War.

The reduced estimate for the War Department arises from the fact that this office has almost ceased to supply books for the Military Libraries. The expenditure under that head, which reached 3,500 l. in 1862-3, had fallen to 330 l. in 1863-4.

Inland Revenue.

The saving calculated in the Inland Revenue Office expenditure, is expected to arise from the non-reassessment of the Income Tax. Any change in that item involves a multitude of new forms, and entails considerable outlay.

Parliamentary Printing.

It is thought that a considerably smaller sum than that voted last year will probably suffice under the head of Parliamentary Printing; partly because the closing Session of a Parliament is always less prolific in this respect than other Sessions; and partly because there is reason to believe that the expenditure for Command Papers will be smaller than last year, inasmuch as the number of pages now in type for the Reports of Temporary Commissions is only 2,220 against 3,877 in 1863.

Stationery Office Publications.

The cause of the decrease anticipated under this head, is simply that fewer works than last year are being printed by order of the Master of the Rolls.

To set against this large reduction of 12,480 l., there are items of increase in the estimated expenditure of various departments, to an aggregate amount of 8,725 l.

INCREASES.

Admiralty	£. 2,500
Privy Council	1,030
Record Office	805
Registrar General	550
Fishery Commission	275
Royal Society Catalogue	1,000
Minor Offices and Temporary Commissions	450
Miscellaneous	1,715
Gazettes	400
	£. 8,725

Leaving a balance of reduction, on account of the regular annual expenditure for the various public offices, amounting to 3,755 l.

Admiralty.

The miscellaneous expenses incurred by this office on account of the Admiralty are swelling steadily year by year, to a not inconsiderable extent, the amount for 1863-4 having exceeded that for 1862-3 by about 1,700 l. But the chief increase of outlay of late has been incurred for books furnished to Naval Libraries, an item which has gradually grown from 33 l. in 1861-2, to 2,200 l. in 1862-3, and to nearly 3,600 l. in 1863-4.

Privy Council.

The demands of the Privy Council Office also steadily increase from year to year, at the rate of about 10 per cent., chiefly in the Education Department, and that of Science and Art; and it will not be safe to ask for a smaller sum this year than was actually spent last year, which was, however, 1,000 l. in excess of that estimated and provided for.

The

Record Office.

The chief portion of the increase under this head is due to the introduction of a wholly new item, viz., the supply to the Registrar of Deeds in Ireland of such articles as he may require (Treasury Letter of the 8th December 1864), in consequence of an alteration introduced by the 26 & 27 Vict. c. 76.

Registrar General.

Last year a vote of only 450 l. was taken on account of the Registrar General for Ireland; but owing to certain Acts of Parliament passed that year, (viz. 26 & 27 Vict. c. 11, 27, and 52), especially that for the Registration of Births and Deaths in Ireland, an expenditure for books and forms, &c., was incurred to the amount of above 4,000 l. (which had not been, and could not have been provided for), the chief portion of which, however, will not again recur. It is believed that 1,500 l. is all that will be required in future years.

Fishery Commission.

The increase under this head arises from the appointment last Session, under the Act 26 & 27 Vict. c. 114, of Special Commissioners of Fisheries in Ireland. An expenditure of nearly 1,000 l. has already been incurred for printing the Evidence taken by these Commissioners, and for the preparation and lithographing of maps ordered by them—an outlay which was not provided for in last year's Estimate, which indeed could not have been foreseen. It is believed that about 500 l. will be required to complete this work.

Royal Society.

The Treasury have authorized the printing of a Catalogue of Scientific Memoranda, prepared by the Royal Society. The cost of this work will be about 3,000 l., and will be spread over three years.

The other items of increase call for no special notice.

In addition to the sums named for the actual expenditure of the ensuing year, I shall, however, require a further amount of 25,000 l. to make good deficiencies in previous Estimates. I find that, on an average, from 1858–9 to 1862–3 inclusive, the aggregate expenditure was nearly met by the annual grants and the repayments from other departments. The variations of plus and minus from year to year, often very considerable, were met by an increase or reduction of the unused balance in the Exchequer or in the hands of the Paymaster General. But the Estimates for the year 1863-4 fell short of the actual expenditure by about 17,000 l. Thus:—

Excess of Expenditure over Estimate.		Excess of Estimate over Expenditure.
	£.		£.
Admiralty and Naval Libraries	5,500	War Office	2,800
Registrar General	3,600	Inland Revenue	1,500
Fisheries Commission, Ireland	1,000	Post Office	1,200
Gazettes	1,500	Patent Office	3,500
Parliamentary Printing	19,600	Stationery Publications	4,000
Miscellaneous	2,700	Miscellaneous	3,300
		Balance	17,000
£.	33,900	£.	33,900

The excess of the actual net expenditure of the current year over the amounts estimated for and granted, cannot as yet be accurately ascertained; but it can scarcely fall short of 8,000 l. These two sums of 17,000 l. and 8,000 l. make up the additional 25,000 l. required.

It should, however, be added that a balance of 43,000 l. was withdrawn from the credit in the Exchequer, on the 31st March last, on account of the grants for Printing and Stationery up to the end of the year 1862–3. Under the former system, superseded in the Appropriation Act for the year 1862–3 (25 & 26 Vict. c. 71), this balance would have been available to defray the excess of expenditure in the two subsequent years; but under the provisions of the Appropriation Act of last Session (27 & 28 Vict. c. 73, s. 10) the balance in question was appropriated as a saving in aid of the Ways and Means granted by that Act for the service of the year 1864–5.

It appears to me desirable to explain, in order to prevent misapprehension on the part of Parliament and of the public, that the Estimate, as usually framed and presented, does not give a fair account of the actual cost of the Stationery Office. It conveys, in fact, an erroneous and greatly exaggerated impression of the aggregate net expenditure of the Government in those matters which fall under the control of this department. By setting forth forth the entire outlay for articles purchased and supplied, and for work done, and taking no credit for the value of articles sold and for advances repaid (which go direct into the Exchequer), it represents the cost to the public, i e. the grant required from Parliament, as at least one-seventh, or 15 per cent. more than it truly is.

For example: we pay for all the printing executed by Messrs. Hansard, Spottiswoode, and Nicholls for the two Houses of Parliament; we furnish the paper for that printing; and we provide warehouse accommodation for the volumes and documents thus created. But the sums received by the gentlemen above-mentioned for Parliamentary Papers sold to the public, and for waste paper ultimately disposed of, which together make up a large amount, are not placed to our credit at all; but are accounted for to the two Houses of Parliament, and disposed of as they may direct.

The waste paper we ourselves sell brings in often as much as 6,000 l. a year. But this sum is paid direct into the Exchequer, and is nowhere placed to our credit, or understood by the public to amount to a real diminution of our expenses.

Again: we provide paper and printing for a great number of publications issued by various Government Departments, such as the Calendar and State Papers published by order of the Master of the Rolls, Army Lists, Nautical Almanacs, Catalogues, &c., which are afterwards sold to the public, and realise very considerable sums, often upwards of 10,000 l. per annum. But not one farthing of this goes to the credit of the Stationery Office (which incurs all the cost, with the exception of the editor's labour); the whole is paid direct into the Exchequer.

The cost of preparing, printing, and publishing the Gazettes is all defrayed by the Stationery Office, and a special sum is required in the Estimate for this purpose. But the receipts from the sale of these Gazettes, amounting to about 24,000 l., is not placed to our account, but is paid into the Exchequer.

We supply the War Department with very expensive paper and materials for the preparation of the Ordnance maps, many of which are afterwards sold to the public; but the sums thus realised, often exceeding 6,000 l. a year, are included in the receipts of the Ordnance Office, not in ours. A similar remark is applicable to the Admiralty Charts, numbers of which are sold, and the paper for which the Stationery Office supplies, to the extent sometimes of 1,600 l. a year.

Lastly, we furnish to what is termed the "Unstamped Warehouse" Branch of the Inland Revenue, forms and papers, &c., to the value of upwards of 12,000 l. per annum, which they re-sell to the public at prices which yield, I understand, about 15,000 l. But this sum, which ought properly to be credited to our account, is considered as a portion of Inland Revenue receipts.

Besides the above items, the Stationery Office supplies the Governments of India and of our Colonies with the articles they require, for which repayment is made, and which, therefore, do not appear in our accounts. But they also, as a remuneration for our trouble and for the increased staff we are obliged to keep in consequence, pay us—India, 2½ per cent., and the Colonies, &c., 5 per cent.—on the sums expended for them. This commission, which clearly ought to go to the credit of our establishment and in reduction of its cost, is henceforth, like all the rest, to be paid into the Exchequer.

To show to what a large extent these various sums, if duly brought (as in any ordinary mercantile balance sheet they would be) to the credit of our account, would reduce the cost of the Stationery Office, I annex an account for the year 1863-4, drawn out as I consider it ought to be drawn out, if the object be to present a fair statement of the real expenses of this department. On one side I place the entire outlay; on the other the aggregate receipts. The sums received by Mr. Hansard and Mr. Spottiswoode are of course merely estimated, as they furnish us no account of their proceedings, but I believe they will not be found very wide of the mark. The sum put down for the proceeds of Ordnance Maps and Admiralty Charts is merely the cost of the materials we have furnished. The actual proceeds received by the two departments are of course much larger. It will be seen as the result of the balance that, while our apparent expenses in that year were 360,000 l., our real expenses were only 290,000 l. I do not think Parliament or the public should be left in ignorance of these facts, or remain under an erroneous impression.

I have, &c.

NOTES explanatory of the ESTIMATE for PUBLIC EDUCATION in the Financial Year 1864-5.

The Estimate provides for Elementary Schools, Normal Schools, and Administration. Annual grants to Elementary Schools are estimated in Scotland according to the Code of 1860 : in England and Wales according to the Revised Code (1865) ; grants to build Elementary Schools, grants to Normal Schools, and the cost of Administration, are estimated for Great Britain.

(A.) By a Minute dated 11 June 1864, the Revised Code, so far as payments to elementary schools in Scotland are concerned, was suspended until 30 June 1865, during inquiry by a Royal Commission into Education in that part of Great Britain. But, although the payments have continued to be made according to the Code of 1860, the inspection and examination of schools in Scotland have been conducted since 31 March 1864 according to the Revised Code. The number of children individually examined in Scotland under the Revised Code up to 31 August 1864, was 31,789, out of 48,171, the average number attending 521 schools, or 66 per cent. The per-centage of failures was in Reading = 10·89 per 100.

Writing = 28·6 „
Arithmetic = 33·4 „

Out of the number 31,789 examined, 12,973 were over 10 years of age, and were presented for examination as follows :—

Under Standard	Presented.		Failed.
	Number.	Per Cent. of the whole Number.	Number.	Per Cent. of the whole Number.
I.	605	4·66	292	48·26
II.	2,113	16·29	875	41·41
III.	3,617	27·88	1,346	37·21
IV.	4,266	32·88	1,682	39·42
V.	1,859	14·33	515	27·75
VI.	513	3·96	133	25·92

The result may be thus stated :—The per-centage of children over 10 to those over 6 years of age was 40·80 upon the whole number examined ; but the children who were both over 10 years of age, and who also were presented for examination above Standard III., was only 20·88 per cent., and who passed without failure only 13·55 per cent. of the whole number examined ; i. e., only one-third passed without failure under Standards IV.—VI. of those who, according to age, ought to have passed under Standard VI. The result is not very different from the first trial of the Revised Code in England. (See Report, 1863-4, p. xxi.)

The estimate for Scotland has been framed on the Code of 1860, but will suffice for any payments to be made under the Revised Code—should it be introduced after 30 June 1865—until the end of the financial year, 31 March 1866.

(B.) 6. The estimate of 897,513 day scholars, at 9 s. 3 d. each, as the provision to be made for elementary schools in England and Wales, in the financial year 1865-6, is arrived at as follows :—

The number 897,513 is the corrected average number in attendance at aided elementary schools in England and Wales, for which payments will be made in the year ending 31 March 1866, and is based on the number 844,222, being the actual average number in attendance in such schools in the year ending 31 December 1864, with 5 per cent. allowed thereon for increase up to 31 December 1865 (= 42,211), and 5 per cent. for the three remaining months upon (844,222 + 42,211 =) 886,433, bringing up the total to 897,513. The actual rate of grant per head in the year ending 31 August 1864, was 9 s. upon the average number in attendance, against 8 s. 1 d. in 1863, (Report, 1863-4, p. xv). A further increase may be expected in the rate, as the schools become better prepared for examination, and the rate of 9 s. 3 d. has accordingly been retained as estimated last year.

The estimate for night scholars is the same as last year. The expenditure is not so likely to fall short of the estimate, now that the examination of night scholars has been facilitated by Articles 132-149 of the Code (1865).

(C.) 7. The reduction in the estimate for building is explained at p. 7, in the note (3) upon the expenditure of the past year.

8. The reduction in the estimate for Training Colleges is due to a change in the mode of payment noticed in the estimate 1864-5, as follows :—

"We have provided for the gradual introduction of a plan whereby each college will be paid for those only of its students who are fairly launched in their profession as teachers. The principle of our Minute is shortly this : we assume 100 l. to represent the cost of training a male, and 70 l. that of training a female student during two years ; and we grant to the college five annual payments of 20 l. for each of its male, and 14 l. for each of its female students, who, after probationary service as a teacher, obtains one of our certificates. We limit the total amount of our grant to 75 per cent. of the approved expenditure ; and we also make it dependent upon the number of students for the time being in residence."

9. The number of members of the permanent establishment has not been increased beyond the estimate of last year ; which allows of the appointment of two inspectors, and four inspectors' assistants, to vacancies not yet filled up.

NOTES on the TABLE of EXPENDITURE (A.) in p. 6.

1. The whole of the expenditure under this head is, with the exception of a few trifling arrears and pensions, amounting together to 1,609 l. 19 s. 8 d., confined to Scotland, and has been made under the heads of the Code of 1860. (See Notes on Estimate, supra, p. 5.)

2. The number of day scholars individually examined in England and Wales under the Revised Code, in the year ending 31 August 1864, was 523,713, out of 794,387, the average number attending the schools visited, or 66 per cent. The number of night scholars individually examined, out of 25,981 attending, was 15,627, or 60.14 per cent.

The per-centage of failures was in Reading = 11·87 per cent.

Writing = 13·98 ,,
Arithmetic = 23·69 ,,

Out of the whole number 539,340 examined, 222,467 were over 10 years of age, and were presented for examination as follows:—

Under Standard	DAY SCHOLARS, Average Number attending, 794,387.				NIGHT SCHOLARS, Average Number attending, 25,981.

VI.	3,162	1·53	855	27 04	135	·86	46	34·07

The result, as to the day scholars, may be thus stated:—The per-centage of children over 10 to those over 6 years of age was 39·49 upon the whole number examined; but the children who were both over 10 years of age, and who also were presented for examination above Standard III. was only 16 per cent., and who passed without failure only 11·12 per cent. of the whole number examined. These last two per-centages are slight improvements over the corresponding ones in 1863, viz., 16 instead of 14·18 per cent. presented for examination; 11·12 instead of 10·09 passed without failure.

The following table shows the number of teachers actually serving in aided schools:—

	1863.			1864.
	England and Wales.	Scotland.	TOTAL.	England and Wales.	Scotland.	TOTAL.
Certificated Teachers - - -	8,428	1,708	10,136	9,037	1,772	10,809

3. The Grants for building, enlarging, or improving the fabrics of Elementary Schools amounted to 26,305 l. 16 s. 10 d., the sum voluntarily subscribed, to 92,702 l. 5 s. 8 d.; the number of schools built, 92; enlarged or improved, 44; teachers' residences built, 66; the number of children for whom additional accommodation in school has been provided, 20,561. The sum of 2,000 l. has been paid for the erection of a Training College at Peterborough, to accommodate 40 Students; sum subscribed by promoters, 4,140 l. 15 s. 10 d. The amount of outstanding liabilities for Building Grants awarded, but not yet claimed, is 24,833 l. 4 s. 2 d.; a period of 18 months is allowed from the date of the award for claiming payment. The latter sum is exclusive of Grants to be awarded, and of which payment may be claimed, within the year 1863-64. The Grant for building the Training College above mentioned arose out of an application entertained before 21 January 1860, at which date such grants were discontinued. (See Report of the Committee of Council on Education, 1859–60, p. xxvi; and Code of 1860, Article 184.)

The reasons which led to a decrease in the distribution of the Grant for Building in 1863 (see Report, 1863–4, p. xiii–xiv) have continued to operate.

4. The total number of Students in Training Colleges at the end of 1864 was 2,701. The number resident for 1865 is 2,493, subject to trifling correction for four returns not yet sent in.

5 and 6. The organization of the establishment is founded (with certain modifications approved by the Lords of the Treasury) upon the Report of the Committees of Inquiry on Public Offices, presented (1854) to both Houses of Parliament, pp. 230–243.

The total number of Elementary Day Schools visited by Her Majesty's Inspectors during 1864 was 7,891, and Schoolrooms under separate teachers, 11,818. They found present 1,133,291 children; the number found present in 1863 was 1,092,741.

IV.—DETAILS relating to the GALLERY and ESTABLISHMENT.

Pictures protected with Glass.

During the year 1864, four pictures have been protected with glass, three of which had been recently purchased. Appendix (No. 2).

Pictures repaired and varnished.

No. 128. " Portrait of the Right Honourable William Windham," by Sir Joshua Reynolds. The surface, besides being cracked, having indicated a tendency to chip, the picture was lined and repaired in February 1864, and was replaced in the Gallery at South Kensington in March following.

No. 315. " The Installation of the Order of the Garter," by West. Portions of the surface having indicated a similar tendency, the picture was lined and repaired in February 1864, and was replaced in the Gallery at South Kensington in March following.

No. 398. "Haidee, a Greek Girl," by Sir Charles Eastlake. The surface having become much cracked, the picture was lined and repaired in February 1864, and was replaced in the Gallery at South Kensington in March following.

No. 519. "Regulus leaving Rome," by Turner. The picture had been stabbed with a penknife, in several places, by a man in a state of temporary derangement, in December 1863. The legal proceedings resulted, in January 1864, in the conviction and punishment of the offender.

The picture was lined and repaired in February 1864, and was replaced in the Gallery in Trafalgar-square in March following.

Picture removed to be repaired.

No. 298. "The Marriage of St. Catherine," by Ambrogio Borgognone; painted in oil, on wood. The surface had long indicated a tendency to blister. This had increased so much during the last year that, with the sanction of the Trustees, the picture was placed, in October last, in the hands of Mr. George Morrill to be repaired. Under all the circumstances it was not thought advisable to resort to the operation of transferring the picture from wood to cloth; but the reduction of the blisters, and the prevention, as far as possible, of the further spreading of the mischief, will necessarily be a work of some time. The picture will, consequently, be absent from the Gallery till the repairs are completed.

Pictures varnished.

No. 629. An Altar-piece, by Bernardino Lanini. Varnished in October 1864.

No. 700. An Altar-piece, by Lorenzo Costa. Varnished in November 1864.

Pictures of which the Varnish has been refreshed by the Pettenkofer Process.

This process was, by desire of the inventor, Professor Max Pettenkofer, of the University of Munich, communicated to the Director of the National Gallery in April 1864. Experiments, exemplifying it, were at that time made by Professor Charles Vogt, on pictures not forming part of the National collection, in the presence of the Director and the Keeper. Those experiments (accompanied by a full explanation of practical details) were entirely successful. The reputation of Professor Pettenkofer as a chemist, and the fact that Baron Liebig and other men of science had witnessed and been satisfied with the process and its results, afforded a sufficient guarantee for its safety; while the highly favourable opinion of Professor Wilhelm Von Kaulbach, the President of the Royal Academy of Arts in Munich, as to its effect on pictures, was an additional recommendation. It was therefore proposed, that in the then following month of October (during the period of vacation) the process should be used for certain pictures in the National Gallery, in cases, namely, where a partial opacity in the superficial varnish was not to be overcome by the usual remedy of frequent wiping with a soft material.

Arrangements for patenting the process were at that time about to be completed. The difficulty which might have arisen from this circumstance was obviated by the liberality of the inventor, communicated by his representative, Professor Vogt. It was agreed (the understanding being subsequently confirmed by letter) that the authorities of the National Gallery should be free to use the process, on condition that its employment by them should be restricted to pictures in the National collection.

The nature of the process—called an invention for "restoring the surface of pictures in oil, without any danger to their original state"—will be best understood from the following extracts from the specification of the patent.*

After remarking that the action of time on the surface of varnished pictures in oil causes "the discontinuance of molecular cohesion," the patentee proceeds:

"The best method of rejoining the separated molecules without any danger or damage to the original, is the following:—The picture is exposed to an atmosphere saturated with vapour of alcohol at the ordinary temperature (without applying heat). . . . By this process the different separated molecules re-acquire cohesion with each other, and the optical effect of the original is restored solely by self-action, the picture not getting touched at all. . . . The very small quantity of alcohol absorbed evaporates very soon when exposed to the ordinary atmosphere, and the surface of the picture remains clear as long as a newly varnished surface.

"The most serviceable and convenient apparatus for the above purpose is some wooden case of the size required . . . lined inside with some metal, for instance zinc, with exception of the lid, to which the picture or the pictures to be restored are fastened. . . . Alcohol is then poured in the metal-lined bottom of the box or case, and the lid is shut, thus suspending the picture face downwards over the alcohol. From time to time the lid is opened, in order to watch the progress of the restoration. . . . The apparatus must of course be varied in case a painting could not well be removed from its place." The patentee patentee proceeds to describe such an apparatus (which might be varied according to circumstances), and further observes, that other substances can be used instead of alcohol; such as wood-naphtha, turpentine, petroleum, benzine, &c.

The conditions and results of the operations on the surface of pictures in the National Gallery may be thus stated:

Of the two kinds of apparatus described, the first only (somewhat more conveniently contrived), which requires that the pictures should be removed from the walls, has been adopted. The original communication having been restricted to alcohol, the effects of which were found to be satisfactory, no substitute for that agent has been tried.

The time which suffices for the due refreshing of the varnish varies, the average being from two to three hours. The vapour acts most readily on mastic varnish; and more readily on a sufficient body than on a thin coat of varnish. In the latter case, the result of the operation may be either imperfect or imperceptible; it is, at the same time, indirectly useful by sometimes showing when a picture requires varnish. There are also varnishes which, from their hardness or from other causes, do not easily yield to the action of the vapour. The cases in which the expected result was arrived at after due time were, however, numerous. Of these, a list is given in the Appendix (No. 3).

With such results it is but just to the liberal and scientific inventor to express a favourable opinion as to the utility of the process. Its peculiarity (on which the patentee lays a stress) is that the picture does not require to be touched; the effect being entirely produced by the action of the vapour. After the operation, as stated in the specification, the alcohol soon evaporates, leaving the surface as hard as before, or, being more compact, probably harder, with the additional and most important recommendation that, from a more or less dull, clouded, and opaque state, it has become perfectly transparent.

In doing justice to these valuable effects of the Pettenkofer process, it should at the same time be borne in mind that, while the operation clears, it does not pretend to clean pictures. When a varnish is darkened by time—whether such an effect arise from its own discolouration or from the gradual incorporation of dust—the action of the vapour, while restoring all the transparency which is compatible with such a state, does not remove the discolouration itself. The patentee remarks that "the resinous parts of the picture absorb alcohol." The picture (properly so called) being assumed by him to be painted in oil, and being moreover protected by the external varnish, it may be doubted whether this expression can be intended to be taken literally. At all events, the operations in the National Gallery have been intentionally confined to the superficial varnish.

Referring to those results only which have been tested, it is believed that the Pettenkofer process, recommending itself no less by its satisfactory results than by the simplicity and safety of its operation, will be found an important means of improving the appearance of pictures, and contributing to their conservation.

Note.—The increased amount of the item Rent, Taxes, &c., as above, is explained by the fact that, within the last year, the Directors paid 100 l. extra, being the last instalment of the purchase-money of the House, No. 45, Upper Sackville-street. This payment will also account for the Expenditure being in a trifling degree in excess of the Income.

The gratuity to the secretaries, for the year ending 31st March 1864, has been paid as usual out of the Balance at foot of the above account.

Children's Employment Commission (1862),
2, Victoria-street, 7 December 1864.

Sir,

I am directed by the Commissioners to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 6th instant, requesting me to prepare and transmit to you an Estimate of the sum which will be required to defray all the expenses of this Commission from its commencement to its termination, distinguishing the amount which will require to be voted during the ensuing Session of Parliament, accompanied by a statement of the progress the Commissioners have made in the inquiry entrusted to them, and of the probable time it will take to complete the inquiry.

I am instructed to state, for the information of Secretary Sir George Grey, that the Commissioners have made considerable progress in the inquiry entrusted to them. They presented their first Report on 15th June 1863, and their second and third Reports on the 26th of July last. These three Reports included the manufactures of—

Pottery.
Paper hangings.
Lucifer matches.
Percussion caps.
Hosiery.
Lace.
Straw plait.
Paper tubes or spools.
Wearing apparel, including millinery, &c.
The iron works of South Staffordshire and Worcestershire.
The blast furnaces, iron mills and forges in other parts of the kingdom.
The metal manufactures of the Birmingham district.
The metal manufactures of the Wolverhampton district.
The miscellaneous metal manufactures of Lancashire.
The trades of hooking or finishing, fustian cutting, and hand-loom weaving.

And, a Report on the violation of the law respecting the employment of climbing boys in chimney sweeping.

The

The Commissioners are unable to speak with confidence as to the probable time it will take to complete the inquiry. They believe, however, that they will be in a position to present their final Report to Her Majesty within four years from the date of the Commission on the 18th February 1862; and, should this anticipation be well founded, the total sum required to defray all the expenses of this Commission from its commencement to its termination will be about 7,500 l.

I am further instructed to say, that the sum required to be voted during the ensuing Session will be about 1,900 l. A large proportion of the yearly expense of this Commission depends on the amount required to defray the travelling and personal expenses of the Assistant Commissioners; but, judging from the experience of the past year, the Commissioners believe that the above estimate will be found very nearly correct.

I have, &c.

SEA FISHERIES COMMISSION.

Sir, 6, Adelphi-terrace, W.C., 15 December 1864.

In reply to your letter of the 6th instant, I am directed by the Royal Commissioners to acquaint you, for the information of Secretary Sir George Grey, that they estimate the sum necessary to defray the entire working expenses of the Commission, including travelling expenses, subsistence money, fees to the paid Commissioner, Secretary's salary, and Reporter's account, but excluding the printing and stationery expenses, at 4,500 l. (that being considerably less than was at first estimated); of this sum about 1,900 l. will be required between the present time and the 21st June 1865, when the Commission will expire.

The Royal Commissioners have now completed their inquiries around the coasts of the United Kingdom except at the Channel Islands and a few places in England; and they fully hope to be able to prepare their Report in the course of the next six months.

I am, &c.
(signed) G. W. H. Holdsworth,

ROYAL COMMISSION ON THE LAW OF HYPOTHEC.

Treasury Chambers, Exchequer,
Sir, Parliament-square, Edinburgh, 13 December 1864.

As desired by you, in your letter of the 8th inst., I have the honour to transmit herewith an Estimate of the sum that will be required to defray the expenses of the Commission to consider and report on the Law relating to the Landlord's right of Hypothec in Scotland. This Estimate includes what the Commissioners, as far as they can at present judge, regard as the probable expenditure of the Commission, from its commencement to its termination, as well as the Amount which will be required to be voted during the ensuing Session of Parliament.

The Commission was for the first time communicated to the Commissioners on the 29th of November, and, as soon as possible thereafter, viz., on the 5th instant, they held their first meeting; they have since proceeded with the examination of several witnesses.

It is at present impossible for the Commissioners to estimate with any degree of confidence the probable duration of the Commission, but they are in hopes it may be concluded within a year.

I have, &c.
(signed) Robert Berry, Secretary.

The Right Honourable the Secretary of State,

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT COMMISSION.

Sir, 16 February 1865.

IN reply to your letter of the 14th instant, requesting that I will prepare an Estimate of the Sum required to defray the Expenses of the Capital Punishment Commission, I regret to say that I have no better means of furnishing an accurate estimate than I possessed at the date of my letter of December 7, 1864.

I should imagine, however, that a sum of 400 l. would be necessary to defray the expenses of printing, short-hand writers, and such expenses as foreign witnesses may be caused by coming to this country for the purpose of giving evidence.

I have, &c.
(signed) J. H. Patteson, Secretary.

The Under Secretary of State,
Home Office.

SCOTCH EDUCATION COMMISSION.

Sir, 17 February 1865.

IN compliance with your letter of the 14th of February, I am directed to submit, for the information of Secretary Sir George Grey, the following Estimate of the Sum which will probably be required to defray the expenses of the Commission; but I am also directed to state that it is impossible at the present moment to frame any Estimate which can be considered more than approximate:—

	£.	s.	d.
Salaries of Secretary, Clerk, and Messenger - - - - -	740	–	–
Expenses of Offices, &c. - - - - - - - - -	120	–	–
Short-hand Writer, and Expenses of Commissioners - - -	390	–	–
Travelling Expenses of Secretary, Commissioners, and Witnesses	200	–	–

Five Assistant Commissioners - - - - - - -	1,000	–	–

SCHOOLS INQUIRY COMMISSION.

Sir, 2, Victoria-street, S.W., 8 March 1865.

IN reply to your letter of the 27th December last, requesting me to prepare and transmit to you an Estimate of the sum which will be required to defray all the expenses of the Schools Inquiry Commission from its commencement to its termination, distinguishing the amount which will require to be voted during the ensuing Session of Parliament:

I beg to state to you, for the information of Secretary Sir George Grey, that as the Commission has only recently commenced its labours, I am quite unable to form a trustworthy opinion as to the time necessary for their due completion, and consequently as to the total expenses of the Commission.

I estimate the expenses of the first year as follows, all the items, except salaries, being conjectural.

SALARIES OF THE ESTABLISHMENT:

Secretary - - - - - - - - - -	500
Clerks - - - - - - - - - -	350
Messenger - - - - - - - - - -	65
		915
10 Assistant Commissioners:—Salaries, at 50 l. per month each, for 8 months - - - - - - - -	4,000
Travelling and Hotel Expenses - - - - - -	2,000
		6,000
Short-hand writer (estimate) - - - - - - - - -		250
Travelling and Personal Expenses of 12 Commissioners - - -		500
Travelling and Personal Expenses of Witnesses - - - - -		50
Postage and Petty Expenses - - - - - - - -		50
TOTAL estimated Expenses for 1st year - - - £.		7,765

All articles of stationery being supplied from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, the expense of them is not included in the above Estimate.

If the Commissioners' inquiry continues, as is most probable, for more than one year, the expenses will probably be confined to the salaries of the Establishment, the expenses of taking evidence, the travelling and personal expenses of the Commissioners, and postage.

I am, &c.
(signed) H. J. Roby, Secretary.

H. Waddington, Esq.

Note *—The Out-door Officers are occasionally employed for the convenience of Merchants, and in such cases the Merchants are called upon to pay the expense of the officers' attendance, which is brought to account as Customs Revenue. The amount received in the year ended 31 March 1864 was 2,464 l. 3 s. 3 d.

Note †—The Out-door Officers and Boatmen are paid 16 l. a year, in lieu of day pay, after an approved service of five years; and all officers of these ranks receive day pay when employed on Sundays.

Note ‡—Previous to the passing of the Customs Amendment Act, 1857, the Crown provided Warehouses for the deposit of Tobacco under Bond. The Crown is liable to the payment of Rent for the Warehouse which was provided at Liverpool, until the expiration of the Lease thereof; but the Premises have been sub-let from the 25th March 1865, at a rent equal to that paid by the Crown; and this amount will be brought to account as Customs Revenue.
